

SOCIAL WORK: YOUTH WORK, BASIC CERTIFICATE

College(s): KK

Program Code: 0466

The Social Work Youth Work Basic Certificate is a specialized academic pathway that aims to equip students with the knowledge, skills, and values to work effectively with children, young people, and their families. The curriculum comprehensively studies human behavior, child development, family dynamics, social welfare problems, and policies. Additionally, the program addresses the legal and ethical considerations involved in working with vulnerable populations. By the end of the program, completers are expected to be competent and compassionate professionals ready to advocate for the rights and well-being of children, youth, and families and to contribute to the development of supportive and inclusive communities.
